

About: Steve

Anthony Steven Carver, Steve; brings real business experience with over eight hundred seminar-webinar presentations and forty seven years ownership of retail, wholesale, Internet and private and government service contracting businesses in NC. He serves private enterprises with one on one and sales and management team special training, appraising, and market surveying projects as well as public speaking on business related topics for Small Business Centers throughout the North Carolina Community College System and individual businesses and private group. He is a member of the United Methodist Church, American Legion, Masonic Lodge, Sudan Temple and Dunn Shrine Club, Dunn Area Chamber of Commerce as well as the NC Writers Network Association.